

Earth Week 2020

April 20 - 24

Laudato Si' from Pope Francis

Earth Day is on Wednesday, April 22!
Try to wear blue and
green on this day!

Throughout this week
there are some different activities and things that everyone can participate in while you are at home.

During this week consider doing some of the following with your family.

Wear blue and green on Wednesday for Earth Day!

Turn lights
off for 1
hour.

TURN OFF LIGHT

Read a poem or book about the earth.

A stylized graphic for Earth Day. In the center is a globe with blue oceans and light green continents. The globe is flanked by two green trees with brown trunks. A blue banner with white text is draped across the bottom of the globe. The background is a light blue sky with several white clouds.
